Re: Bookends & Beginnings LLC v. Amazon.com, Inc., et al., 1:21-cv-02584
(Bookends)

Dear Judge Woods:

Pursuant Magistrate Judge Valerie Figueredo's Report and Recommendation (the "Report") [ECF 141] and Rule 1.E of this Court's Individual Rules of Practice in Civil Cases, Plaintiff in the above referenced proposed class action submits this letter respectfully requesting that the Court grant Plaintiff an extension of time to file its objection to Judge Figueredo's 59-page Report.

Plaintiff's objection is due on August 29, 2022. Plaintiff requests an extension until September 15, 2022, to file its objection. This is Plaintiff's first request for an extension of time to file an objection to the Report. Plaintiff's request has no impact on other scheduled dates in this matter. Plaintiff makes this request because attorneys serving as Plaintiff's counsel are already working to file an objection to Judge Figueredo's Report and Recommendation in In re Amazon.com, Inc. eBook Antitrust Litigation, 1:21-cv-00351, on or before August 31, 2022. Additionally, Plaintiff's counsel have professional obligations and long standing family vacations scheduled immediately before the due dates for both objections. Defendants informed Plaintiff that they take "no position" on Plaintiff's extension request but, if granted, Defendants would like a similar extension of time to file their response to Plaintiff's objection.

Plaintiff therefore respectfully requests that the Court grant Plaintiff until up to and including September 15, 2022, to file its objection in response to the Report.
